

COST Workshop, Università Roma Tre, Aula Verra, via Ostiense 234, Rome, 27.09.2022

Programme

Session I. The Pandemic of Argumentation

- 14:00-14:30: Welcome and presentation of The Pandemic of Argumentation
Steve Oswald (University of Fribourg, Switzerland) & Marcin Lewiński (Universidade Nova de Lisboa, Portugal)
- 14:30-15:00: “From all the news that’s fit to tweet to hashjacking: the case of Italian snap elections”
Elena Musi (University of Liverpool, UK)
- 15:00-15:30 “Rethinking trust in law: the case of Covid -19 contact tracing app”
Serena Tomasi (Università di Trento, Italy)
- 15:30-16:00 “Securitization, emergency and authoritarian attitudes: Polylogical argumentation in Southern Europe at the weakening of the COVID-19 pandemic”
Dimitris Serafis (University of Liverpool, UK)

16:00-16:30 COFFEE BREAK

Session II. Workgroup updates and current research

- 16:30-16:40 WG1 updates
Barbara De Cock (Université Catholique de Louvain, Belgium)
- 16:40-17:10 WG1 talk: “Working on sustainability discourse: an empirical journey”
Sara Greco (Università della Svizzera Italiana, Switzerland)
- 17:10-17:20 WG2 updates
Jan Albert van Laar (University of Groningen, Netherlands)
- 17:20-17:30 WG3 Updates
Serena Villata (CNRS, Sophia Antipolis, France)
- 17:30-18:00 WG3 talk: “Graphical Representation Enhances Human Compliance with Principles for Graded Argumentation Semantics”
Srdjan Vesic (CNRS, Lens, France)

All welcome!

Funded by the European Union